Sure, dealing with acne in your teens is cruel – but in your 20s, 30s and 40s? That's just plain unfair. Here we uncover the top reader-tested acne-fighting products, as well as the products that did not deliver results, so you can save your time and money. Plus we'll get some simple lifestyle tips that'll help you be less pimple prone, thanks to Doris Day, M.D., clinical assistant professor of dermatology at the New York University Langone Medical Center. P.S. Got a pimple right now? Be sure to steer clear of these worst concealers.
